Content Courtesy of: Skip McGreevy

Indiana County, PA Trivia

1. In 1727 a trading post (theoretically the origin of Indiana County) was established in what small Indiana town?

2. What is the nickname for Indiana County?

3. What is the "official" founding day for Indiana County?

4. Who are the current county commissioners of Indiana County?

5. The book, "The Fools Progress" was written by a famous Indiana County writer. Who is this writer?

6. Indiana has a National Medal of Arts winner who also nominated for a Tony. Who is this Indiana born superstar?

7. Another Indiana graduate was inducted into the New England Patriots Hall of fame. Name this Indiana stalwart?

8. A writer from Indiana, PA is well-known in literary circles for writing several novels including: "Back Roads", "Coal Run" and "Sister Mine". Who is this distinguished author?

9. Another author from Indiana, PA has written several novels including the "Hunter" series and the "Payne and Jones" series. In 2016 he won The Thriller Writers Award for Book of the Year. Who is this dynamic writer?

10. Marion Center was laid out by John Park in 1874. Why did John Park decide to call his village Marion Center?

11. Many of us know that Clymer was named after George Clymer an American patriot and founding father. George belongs to a small fraternity of 5 other men who did something unusual. What did George and this small group of men do?

12. The Homer Center Generating Station located in Center Township, Indiana County is famous in the United States and also internationally. What makes it famous?

13. The Jimmy Stewart Airport is obviously named after Indiana's favorite son. However, Indiana's original airport was opened in May, 1929. What was the name of that airport?

14. Yellow Creek State Park is a valuable asset to Indiana County. How many acres is Yellow Creek?

15. Ernest native, Bernice Gera is one of a kind. Why is Bernie unusual?

16. What is the oldest community in Indiana County?

17. What town is named after the historic boundary marker between Indiana, Cambria, and Clearfield counties?

18. What Xfiles episode was set in a fictional version of an Indiana County town?