FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jimmy Stewart's Birthday Walk – Friday, May 20th

INDIANA, PA – In partnership with the Jimmy Stewart Museum, the Indiana County Decathlon Planning Team is excited to invite the public to participate in the Jimmy Stewart Birthday Walk this Friday, May 20 at 5:30pm. The walk will start and end at the Jimmy Stewart Museum and participants will be led by the Museum Executive Director, Janie McKirgan, on a tour through various points of interest throughout Indiana that are important to the hometown hero and his family's story and legacy.

There are only a few more events left in this year's Decathlon program, which culminates at Naturepalooza on June 4 at Blue Spruce Park. Come celebrate Jimmy's birthday with us while learning local history and getting some exercise together. We look forward to seeing you all on Friday.

Thanks to businesses, community-based organizations, and dedicated volunteers, over the past six years we have reached over 500 participants through the Indiana County Decathlon. Program information for this year and years-past events, including a series of self-guided tours, is available on the Indiana County Office of Planning & Development's website at icopd.org. Find us on Facebook at Indiana County Walking Decathlon.
