The University Museum Goes Downtown: Selected Prints from The Collection

Indiana, PA - The University Museum at IUP returns to Artists Hand Gallery, 732 Philadelphia Street, with the exhibit Selected Prints from The Collection, running from Friday, April 26 until Saturday, May 18.

This exhibition will feature an eclectic array of prints showcasing various artists and printmaking techniques. From classic woodcuts to intricate etchings and engravings, visitors will experience the rich tapestry of printmaking traditions spanning cultures and generations. The display will highlight both traditional and contemporary styles, offering a kaleidoscope of colors, designs, and artistic expressions.

Learn how historical and cultural influences have shaped the evolution of printmaking, influencing the choice of materials, compositions, and techniques employed by artists. Don't miss this unique opportunity to experience the power and allure of prints as a transformative and enduring art form.

The community is invited to the Artists Hand Gallery to view this exhibition and explore the beauty and creativity of printmaking. The exhibition will be open to the public during Artists Hand Gallery hours.
